Operation: move()

Pre-conditions: The player has selected the worker index and give a valid input, which means the worker can maximum worker up one level, And the new location is no worker there.

Post-conditions: worker's location change to new location. Check success, if it's end, determined the winner. If not, going into the build action.